

READ

Access these always available eBooks by creating a free account with your library card and searching the titles on metrolibrary.org/hoopla or click the links below

- Where's Rodney by Carmen Bogan
- What Can You Do With a Rock? by Pat Zietlow Miller
- The Collectors by Alice Feagan

WATCH

- Stream Nature Cat: Nature Art on Kanopy Kids by creating a free account on metrolibrary.org/kanopy. Skip the video ahead to 12:15 to view the Nature Art episode.
- View The Magic School Bus Springs into Nature on Hoopla

SING

The Green Grass Grows All Around

View the youtube video "Green Grass Grows All Around by The Learning Station" for the lyrics and tune.

ACTIVITY

- In the book, "Daniel Finds a Poem" by Micha Archer (available on Libby), Daniel finds poetry everywhere by observing nature. Talk about or write a nature-inspired poem by going on a nature walk and using your 5 senses.
 - I see:
 - I hear:
 - I feel:
 - I smell:
 - I taste:

MORE BOOKS

Books on Hoopla

- Colors at the Park by Elizabeth Morgan
- I Hear You, Forest by Kallie George
- The Hike by Alison Farrell

Books on Overdrive/Libby (note: These titles may have a waiting list.)

- Daniel Finds a Poem by Micha Archer
- Moby Shinobi and Toby Too: Take a Hike by Luke Flowers

KEEP LEARNING AT HOME

- You can look up more information about science and nature on Britannica Library Children <https://library.eb.com/levels/children> ! It's a kid-friendly version of Encyclopedia Britannica designed to help K-5 students with homework assignments, school projects, and research reports.